UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

12
Arjun Vasan,
13 Plaintiff,
14 vs.
15 Checkmate.com, Inc.,
16 (dba “Checkmate”),
17 Defendant.

18 Case No.: 2:25-cv-00765-MEMF-JPR
19
20

REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL
NOTICE THAT RESIGNATION
AFTER TERMINATION IS A
LEGAL IMPOSSIBILITY — AND
THAT TIME DOES NOT MOVE
BACKWARD

21 Plaintiff respectfully requests judicial notice of the axiomatic principle that once an employer
22 terminates an employee, the employment relationship is immediately and irrevocably severed. A
23 resignation submitted after being terminated is legally meaningless—there is no position left
24 from which to resign.

25 Judicial notice is proper under Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b)(1), as this principle is generally
26 known within this Court’s territorial jurisdiction. It is also proper under Rule 201(b)(2), as the 27
28

1 factual sequence at issue is readily verifiable through timestamped communications, recorded
2 transcripts, and universally accepted temporal logic.

3 In this case, Plaintiff was explicitly terminated during a recorded Zoom meeting on the morning
4 of November 14, 2024. That meeting was transcribed in real time and summarized by the
5 meeting software Fathom.video, which automatically issued a summary to all participants,
6 timestamped at 8:13 a.m. The emailed summary, full verbatim transcript, and accompanying
7 screenshots appear in Plaintiff's Opposition at ECF No. 27, Exhibits H, I, and J.

8 In contrast, Defendant's allegation that Plaintiff "resigned" is based on a single email sent at 9:56
9 a.m. the same day—more than an hour after the recorded termination. This email is attached to
10 Defendant's Motion to Dismiss or Transfer at ECF No. 18, Agarwal Declaration, Ex. F.

12 Accordingly, Plaintiff also respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice that
13 time moves in a forward direction, and that the clock strikes each hour but once per day.

17 Respectfully Submitted,
